

Fidelity, Surety & Commercial Bond Practice

Bentz Law Firm, P.C.'s fidelity, surety and commercial bond practice is extensive and wide ranging. Each of our lawyers have experience representing surety and fidelity insurers in various matters and have over 100 years of combined experience in this area. Many of our attorneys actively participate in national leading industry groups and several have authored papers or spoke on industry specific topics.

The nature of our work for the surety and fidelity industry clients is comprehensive. Our lawyers handle pre and post-default work, takeover and tender arrangements, workouts, financing, litigation and other aspects of surety work, including salvage matters. With regard to fidelity and coverage work, our lawyers handle cases involving stacking, complex losses, coverage and complicated proofs of loss. Our commercial bond work has been extensive and is as varied as the type of bonds our clients' issue. Our lawyers have handled and/or managed surety and fidelity matters throughout the country.
