

Alternative Dispute Resolution

Bentz Law Firm has extensive experience in Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) procedures, including arbitration, mediation, and early neutral evaluation. Our ADR team includes seasoned attorneys with deep experience in a wide variety of legal disciplines. Our team includes Len Spagnolo, who, in addition to representing clients in ADR proceedings, also serves on the ADR panel of mediators and early neutral evaluators for the United States District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania and the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania.

Our ADR team applies formidable negotiation skills, highly effective communication techniques, decades of experience, and deep knowledge of business and law, to create cost effective and, where important, confidential settlement solutions for our clients. Many times, we are able to take what appear to be legal disputes and forge them into business solutions, thereby avoiding the time, costs and uncertainties of litigation and, equally important, preserving business relationships.

Are you embroiled in a seemingly intractable business or legal problem that is in litigation, or appears headed in that direction? We have successfully guided many clients through those complex scenarios and helped them and their adversaries get to “yes.” Let us show you the benefits of ADR as an alternative to traditional litigation problem solving.
